

Universal Orlando Celebrated Asian Pacific Heritage Month

Asian Student Association from UCF

Asian Pacific Heritage Cultural Fair was one of several events the Diversity Task Force at Universal Orlando organized in the month of May. Over 300 team members attended the event which included exhibitors from Asia Trend Magazine, Teri Mitchell (Japanese Tea Ceremony, Shodo calligraphy), Anne Tsoi of China Garden (chopstick etiquette), Madame Wu (Tai Chi), Tabitha Miller (Feng Shui), Peter Lau (Chinese calligraphy), Sreenivas Jarugula (Hindu Society), Betsy Hoagg (Central Florida Bonsai Club), Joyce Froelich (Philippines booth), and many students from the UCF Asian Student Association. Universal Orlando team members also had an origami table (Akiyu Elguennich) and a henna station.

China Garden - chopstick etiquette

Judi Lebreo, Community & Diversity Relations, Shally Wong and Teri Mitchell

Central Florida Bonsai Club - Betsy Hoagg

Kimby Jagnandan of Universal Orlando displays her henna art

Angela Lagos, Senior Manager of Diversity and Shally Wong, Asia Trend Magazine

Teri Mitchell, Yuriko Takayama (Japanese Tea Ceremony, Shodo calligraphy)

Tabitha Miller – Feng Shui

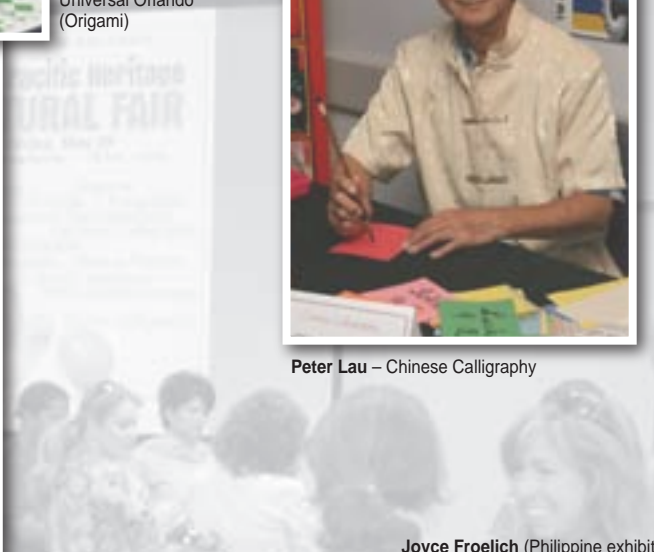

Akiyu Elguenich of Universal Orlando (Origami)

Peter Lau – Chinese Calligraphy

Madame Wu – Tai Chi

Joyce Froelich (Philippine exhibit) and UCF Asian Student Association members

Radhika Thelapurath, Sreenivas Jarugula, Shobana Daniell (Hindu Society of Central Florida)

